Soon after they produced a line of frozen pizzas & sold them at local stores. In 1955, they opened up Mrs. Milano's Pizza Place on their front porch with four tables & ten broken chairs. Valley residents could now enjoy a little bit of Italy in Weslaco.

In 1960 Lino married Giovanna Corrente in Minturno, Italy and then returned to Weslaco to take over the restaurant in 1968. Over the years, every room in the Milano home has eventually transformed into part of what is now called Milano's La Piccola Italia.
